

SOUTHEAST BUSINESS ASSOCIATION

NEWSLETTER

President's Message

Hope all are having a great summer. Let's get it started by attending our June picnic at the Pleasant Garden Town Hall on Alliance Church Road. The business association will be providing hamburgers and hot dogs catered by Synder Farms Restaurant, bring a friend and a potential member. We ask members to bring a dessert.

I would like to thank the Scholarship Committee for selecting two students to receive the Southeast Business Association scholarship. The two students are Amy Moser and Hannah Doss. Amy is finishing her first year of college and Hannah will be going off to her first year of college. We have invited them and their family to our picnic. Please make sure we make them feel welcome.

The Southeast Business Association will not meet in July so please come out to our June meeting and enjoy your fellow members and guests. We have a great program scheduled for our August meeting, so don't miss it.

Support, Encouragement & Endorsement

The mission of the Southeast Business Association is to provide a platform that encourages the growth and financial support of our local businesses. From the smallest to the largest, we will strive to endorse the businesses of the Southeast community and surrounding areas through support and interaction by working hand-in-hand with local civic groups and the community as a whole.
